323. മിസ്റ്റർ കെ. പി. വള്ളോൻ.—നെട്ടൂർ ഉള്ളാടകാളനിയിൽ ഫ്രഹന്-ൽ എത്ര വീടുകൾ പണി കഴിച്ചിട്ടുണ്ട്?

രാമവാര്യരമ്മതമ്പുരാൻ.—ഒന്നുമില്ല.

Expenditure on College extension works.

324. Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) the amount of money spent upon the College extensions at Ernakulam up-to-date;

(b) the probable additional amount required for completing the scheme?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—(a) Rs. 6,56,113—8—5 till the end of Mithunam 1109.

(b) About 7 lakhs.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Is there any broad plan in the view of the Government to absorb the Himalayan products that will ensue from such a large expenditure on education?

President.—Well, I think the Hon'ble Chief Engineer will be a very clever man if he could answer that question.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—May I know whether this 6,56,113—8—5 includes the cost of equipment also?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—No.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—May I know whether the sum of Rs. 81,638—5—9 the cost of equipment given yesterday in answer to Question No. 301, is a correct figure?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon—The cost of that equipment is included in this figure.

Dr. A. R. Menon.—Do you think that with the total of 7 lakhs you would be able to meet all the expenditure in connection with the college works and equipments?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—That is our estimate.

Dr. A. R. Menon.—Are you sure that you would not require any more money?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—We are sure as far as our estimate is concerned.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar.—Does this 7 lakhs include the construction of the High School building which was necessitated on account of the retention of the college here.

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon—Yes.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—May we know the items of expenditure to be incurred from this 7 lakhs hereafter?

Mr. V. K Aravindaksha Menon—A few more items with regard to the original scheme remain to be done. They are a gymnasium for boys, an undergraduates' club house, compound walls, construction of hostels for boys, another hostel for girl acquisition of a site for girls' hostel, gymnasium for girls, sick rooms, Principal's quarters, Assistant warden's quarters, shifting of the reservoir, erection of the electric installation, etc. etc.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—With regard to the expenditure already incurred a part of the amount is seen spent for land acquisition. In regard to this land acquisition may I know how many cases are pending in the courts?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—I want notice.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Are there not many?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—There are some

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar.—Does the estimate of 7 lakhs iclude the probable amount that will have to be given for enhanced value?

Mr V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—No.

Mr. A. Sankara Poduval.—How much has already been spent over and above the original estimate?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—I do not think there will be much difference.

Mr. A. Sankara Poduval.—When the question was first mooted here Government said that about ten or eleven lakhs would be necessary. Have the Government begun to regret for their decision to stick on at Ernakulam?

Suspension of one of the posts of Prosecuting Inspectors.

325. Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) when the post of one of the Prosecuting Inspectors was temporarily suspended;

(b) what was the reason for doing so;

(c) has not the sole Prosecuting Inspector been able to cope with the work since the suspension of one of the posts?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—(a) In 1107.

(b) The post was temporarily suspended partly as a measure of retrenchment and partly due to the fact that two Inspectors had not sufficient work.

(c) Yes, till now.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—In view of the answer given here do not the Government realise the necessity for abolishing one of the two posts and to have only one Prosecuting Inspector?

Mr. P. Nilakanta Menon.—The matter is still under consideration.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Was any allowance or increment of pay given?
